Meeting report

In the three weeks after the event, please complete this report. It contains two sections:

1. Reporting: this is intended as a feedback on the event, on what was learnt, on how the event will affect your work and on how it will be disseminated. In addition to the ECML National Nominating Authority and the National Contact Point in your country the ECML will use the report¹ in the "Experts involved in ECML activities" section of each ECML member state website (please see <http://contactpoints.ecml.at>).

This section should be written in one of the project's working languages.

The public information should be a short, promotional text of about 200 words.

Short text (about 200 words) for the promotion of the ECML event, the project and the envisaged publication with a focus on the benefits for target groups. This text should be provided in your national language(s) to be used for dissemination (on websites, for journals etc.).

24.–25. juunini toimus Grazis Euroopa Nüüdiskeelte Keskuses projekti “Developing migrants' language competences at work (Language for Work) lõpuseminar, 46 osalejaga kokku 32 riigist. Seminaril toimusid arutelud immigrantide ja kohalike vähemuste töölase keeleoskuse arendamise efektiivsete viiside üle, samuti jagasid oma maa kogemusi selles vallas võrgustiku liikmed. Eriti elava diskussiooni kustus esile külalisesineja prof Laurent Filliettazi (University of Geneva) ettekanne “Recognising and sustaining the linguistic demands of the workplace. Contributions from a sociocopragmatic perspective”, mis näitas, kuidas töökoha keeleliste vajaduste alased uurimused võivad olla kasuks vadkonna praktikutele. Arutati ka projekti väljundina valminud veebikeskkona ja loodud võrgustiku edasise arengu küsimusi.
